Commission on Narcotic Drugs

Report on the forty-fifth session (13 December 2001 and 11-15 March 2002)

Corrigendum

Chapter V, section B, paragraph 51

At the end of the paragraph insert

The representative of Indonesia made a statement to register the strong concern that the trend towards relaxing control on illicit drugs, which was in contravention of the letter and spirit of the international drug control conventions, had potential adverse repercussions for drugs under international control. He stressed the importance of guaranteeing the integrity of the entire international drug control regime, as stated by the Group of 77 and China.
